COURT NEWS

Harvey A. Boerstler has filed suit in common pleas court, naming Charles W. McLaughlin as defendant, in which he asks for the return of a piano and a promissory note for $27.50 or its equivalent. The plaintiff claims that he agreed to sell the defendant a certain piano in return for a certain lot in the village of Kenmore and also agreed to give the defendant $27.50 in addition to the instrument, the lot being valued at $400. The deal was made, according to the plaintiff, but he later learned that the deed transferred to him a lot other than the one he claims had been agreed on. He also claims that when he discovered this fact he made a demand for the return of the piano and the promissory note and offered a reconveyance of the realty in question. He claims that the defendant refused to be a party to this attempt at settlement. As a result of the position taken by the defendant the plaintiff asks that the court set aside the transaction and restore to him the piano and the note given or a judgment for the amount against the defendant. Attorneys Tibbals, Raymond and Ream represent the plaintiff.

By agreement between Prosecutor Upham and Attorney Roach, the inquiry into the sanity of George W. Miller has been postponed from the first to the fifteenth of June. Miller is now at the workhouse recovering from wounds he inflicted on himself after the alleged shooting of Mrs. Tillie Hartenstein for which he was indicted by the grand jury, the bill charging him with murder in the second degree.

The inquiry will be made before and the result determined by a jury instead of by a commission of experts and it is said the hearing is not likely to take more than one day's time. In the event that Miller is declared sane Prosecutor Upham says he will have him tried as speedily as possible.

Yesterday morning Judge Ambler administered the oath of office to the four jury commissioners who will pick 400 electors of this county who will serve as jurors in common pleas and probate court work during the next year should their names be drawn from the jury wheel by Sheriff Wilson and Clerk of Courts Wise. The selection of names by the commissioners will be made within the next ten days. The men appointed are G. A. Shane, John H. Lloyd, Homer Miller and J. J. Weller.

A deed of assignment was filed in probate court yesterday by Nathan Wolinsky, of 400 East Tuscarawas street, in which he transferred his entire stock of goods to Milton J. Braucher. The stock is alleged to consist of clothing, jewelry and a number of other articles. No list of liabilities or assets was filed. The reasons which lead up to the necessity for assignment could not be learned.

An appraisal of the personality of Theresa Remme was filed in probate court yesterday showing the value of the stock of goods and other personal not exempt to be $835. No list of assets and liabilities has been filed.

An affidavit charging Arthur Curry with burglary was filed in probate court yesterday by Chief of Police Smith. Curry was arrested in connection with the burglary of the Nickel-

Odeon about a week ago. Curry is held by the police and when it developed that he is a minor the charge against him in the mayor's court was withdrawn and the affidavit filed in probate court.

WANTED, DEVICE TO ELIMINATE FILIBUSTERS

Washington, May 25.—Effective filibusters in the house will be impossible hereafter if a suggestion that has just been made is put into effect. It is proposed that future votes in the house shall be registered by some mechanical device, individual members registering their decision on a given measure by pressing a button. Since the house Democrats began their obstructive tactics early in April more than a month has been consumed in roll calls. It takes from 25 to 40 minutes to call the roll in the house. Under the constitution the ayes and noes may be demanded on every affirmative proposition. In exercising this constitutional prerogative the Democrats have worked overtime. As a result every legislative expedient had to be adopted by the Republicans to expedite business. Although short cuts were taken whenever possible, it was still within the power of the minority to have many roll calls each day. Therefore the Republicans are talking about putting in a mechanical device of some sort whereby votes may be cast by pressing a button, thus eliminating the tedious and nerve wracking process of calling of 353 names every time the ayes and noes are demanded.

RIBS BROKEN BY FALL BUT MAN DIDN'T KNOW IT

Richard R. Davison, superintendent of H. A. Smith's horseshoeing shop, in East Fifth street, met with a painful accident Saturday, but he did not discover the extent of his injuries until Monday, when he was compelled to leave his work and consult a physician. He is of a robust build and continued his work until told by the physician to take a rest. He was engaged in cleaning up the shop Saturday with one of the other men and used the hose to wash out the place. This made the floor slippery and while passing a heavy anvil Davison slipped and struck against the anvil with such force that several of his ribs were broken.

NO SCHOOL HORROR PICTURES FOR CANTON

There will be no exhibition of the Collinwood disaster pictures in Canton, according to a statement given out by Mayor Turnbull Monday afternoon. "I noticed that the pictures of this disaster have been advertised to take place at the Auditorium next Saturday and Sunday evenings and I have given orders that no such exhibition should take place here. We had some trouble in finding out who was going to exhibit them, but we discovered that they were parties from Cleveland working in conjunction with M. Best of this city. I have called Mr. Best in and told him that I would not permit it and he will probably make arrangements for the substitution of other pictures. I understand that he will ask them to put on the pictures of Bob Evans' feet around the world and if this is done there will be no objection raised. I do not deem it proper to revive the Collinwood catastrophe."

Another Turtle for Outing Club.

Another big moss-back turtle has been received from Oxford, Mich., by Secretary S. F. Talbot, of the Canton Outing club. This one was sent to the club by "Hank" Congdon, one of the proprietors of the Oxford Leader, who is a warm personal friend of the members of the camping party. It is thought that the club members will have a little supper at their next meeting, which will be held Tuesday evening of next week.
